MR. BLATCHLEY DECLINES

WILL NOT ASSIST FAIR COMMISSION WITH MINERAL EXHIBIT.

Some Criticism of His Attitude by State Officers-The Geologist's Explanation.

It developed at the Statehouse yesterday that State Geologist W. S. Blatchley has declined to co-operate with the world's fair commission in preparing the exhibit of the mineral resources of the State for the St. Louis exposition. Mr. Blatchley gives as his reason that he is too busy to assist with the work, but some of the other state officials are inclined to believe that he has taken this position through pique because the Legislature refused to give him a special appropriation of $10,000 to be expended by him for such an exhibit.

Mr. Blatchley had a bill presented to the Legislature that appropriated $10,000 for an exhibit of Indiana's mineral resources at the exposition, the money to be expended station for petit larceny. under his direction. The bill was defeated in spite of active efforts on the part of himself and his friends to push it through, and | from porches of residences and selling them he was told that ample provision for such an exhibit would be made by the world's fair commission from the general appropria-

Chairman W. H. O'Brien, of the subcommittee having that department in charge, went to see the state geologist he found that official "too busy" to assist in the work. Those who are inclined to criticise Mr. Blatchley for his attitude point out that it is strange that only a few weeks ago he expected to have ample time to look after the expenditure of $10,000 for his exhibit, while now he cannot even assist the commission. Mr. Blatchley said last evening regarding the matter that he had replied to the secretary of the commission to the effect that he would have no time in which to prepare for an exhibit at St. Louis. "My report for 1902 and 1903 is being delayed several months," he said, "and will not be out before September. I am kepthere three or four days a week reading proof and as soon as this work is done I have to begin on my next report. This year I have to get a special report on the oil industry, make maps, etc., and I expect to pay some attention to the lime industry of the State. With all these things on hand I will have no time to look after an exhibit for the fair. This is the only reason I have for declining to assist in making an exhibit from my department." GIRL TRAMP IN TOWN

Lizzie Lawrence Is Now in the Custody of the Police. Lizzie Lawrence, a fifteen-year-old girl picked up at the Union Station Thursday by a patrolman, told a loosely connected story the girl stole her way from Greencastle to this city on a Vandalia train. She said the man for whom she worked in Greencastle put her on the rear platform of the train and told her she could ride there for nothing. According to the story of the girl, Mr. Daniel Cox, of whom there is no record in the directory, was to meet her at the train, but failed to appear. The girl hung around the station for two nights and slept there Wednesday night. She says she has been in the habit of living with her relatives, as her parents are dead. The court wrote a number of letters to people named by her, and she will be held until some reply is

THE YOUNG MAN EXPECTS, HOW-EVER, TO BE RELEASED TO-DAY.

Occasioned by Prosecutor Ruckelshaus Being Out of Town-Statement of Mr. Bass.

Jacob Rosenthal, the young man recently arrested in Detroit, Mich., on information sworn out by two Indianapolis citizens, who charged him with obtaining money under false pretenses, is still in the county jail, but it is said he will be freed to-day. Mr. Navin and Mr. Solomon, the men who at first believed Rosenthal had defrauded them by securing their indorsements on worthless drafts, have become convinced that he did not intentionally do them any wrong. They lay the blame on his employers, who, it is alleged, refused to honor the drafts when presented to them for payment and wrote to Mr. Navin, telling him that Rosenthal was no longer in their employ, when in fact they accepted orders from him on dates later than the day they refused to accept the drafts. A meeting was to have been held with Prosecutor Ruskelshaus yesterday to see about the dismissal of the charges against Rosenthal, but Mr. Ruckelshaus was out of the city, and it was necessary to postpone the conference until to-day.

Rosenthal's bride, who was with him in Detroit at the time of his arrest, has not yet returned to Indianapolis, but at the jail last night Rosenthal stated that he expected her either this morning or this

In speaking of his arrest Rosenthal stated that ne had been grossly mistreated by Henry Thayer & Co., the Boston firm by whom he was employed, and declared his innocence of any wrong intent. He said that the firm had the reputation among traveling men of being very hard on their mployes and exceedingly slow in their remittances. Immediately on securing his release from jail Mr. Rosenthal will bring suit against Henry Thayer & Co., for the damage his reputation has suffered at their hands, he says.

Mr. Bass, a former employe of the Henry Thayer Company, stated yesterday that the amount due him from the company bill owed the Boston firm by Navin Brothhe claimed were due him. He said: "I have a suit against Henry Thayer & Co. drove at a break-neck speed to the woman's and have garnisheed $183 in the hands of home and found, he says, that she had Navin Brothers, but my claim is not the quarreled again with her husband. Telling amount stated in the papers yesterday. My case is in Justice Smock's court. Henry Thayer & Co. have admitted the validity of my claim by offering to settle, though prior to my suit and garnishee proceedings being commenced they were arrogant and stood on their dignity. It is probable that this disposition has made Rosenthal's trouble." Later in the day Mr. Bass said that the Boston firm had settled with him through their attorney here, and had paid his claim in full. In case Mr. Ruckelshaus does not return to the city to-day a bondsman will be secured and Rosenthal will be released on bail until the case can be dismissed. Mrs. Rosenthal, mother of the unfortunate young man, who is in the city, expects her usband here from Cincinnati to-day.

The boy was driving the horse down Ohio street, and at Pennsylvania street the animal became frightened at a street car and ran away. In front of the Denison Hotel the lad was thrown from his seat to the pavement and was carried into Sloan's drug store in an unconscious condition. The horse, with the wagon swaying from one side of the roadway to the other continued into a buggy belonging to J. H. House, of Southport, and partly demolished it. The concussion threw the wild animal on to its side and before it could regain its feet a man was at its head and held it. MRS. BIRDIE WHITTAKER, HOW-EVER, FEIGNED UNCONSCIOUSNESS.

The Second Time the Dispensary Ambulance Has Been to Her House on a Fake Call.

Mrs. Birdie Whittaker, 15 South Pine street, has caused the doctors at the City Dispensary no end of trouble during the last week, and, according to the statements of the indignant doctors, stands well to be placed on the black list at their next business meeting.

Early this week Mrs. Whittaker became angered at her husband, and, after he left home for the day, went out in the back yard and created such a terrific racket that the entire neighborhood was roused to a high pitch of excitement. Some agitated female called for the Dispensary ambulance, stating that Mrs. Whittaker was dying and the doctors made a fast run to the scene of the disturbance and found the dying woman much more alive than many of her neighbors. MANY CHILDREN SENT TO THIS STATE FROM CHICAGO.

It Is a Violation of the Law, and Will Be Investigated by the State Board of Charities.

The State Board of Charities will investigate a report to the effect that the American Home-finding Association of Chicago is placing dependent children in Indiana homes. Under the law outside charitable associations cannot place children in this State without first giving a bond, which is forfeited if the wards ever become public charges. It is stated that the Chicago organization is placing children in families its mad flight to Court street, where it ran in the northwest part of Indiana. The board will consult with the attorney general as to the best course to pursue in the matter. The association has been active in collecting money in this State, but this

At the meeting of the State board yesterday all of the members were present. Reports were had from members who have visited state institutions since the last meeting, and as Secretary Butler said, 'they are encouraging and commendatory.' The state agency, which has charge of the child-saving department of the board, reported that 332 children have been visited in the families where the board has placed them. Of this number only twenty were reported as doing poorly. Sixty-three were placed with families in the last quarter. The board received the resignation of W. B. Streeter, one of the state agents enpendent children, but his successor was not chosen. Mr. Streeter becomes the general

PULLMANCOMPANY'S PLEA

> Western Union Also Asks for a Reduction-Telephone Companies Before the Tax Board.

Representatives of the Pullman Car Company were before the State Board of Tax Commissioners yesterday seeking a reduction in the assessment on the company's property. It is claimed the company was assessed too high in Indiana last year. The total assessment was $437,649. The company's cars run over 3.805 miles of railroad in Indiana and last year was assessed at $115 a mile. The company's representatives think the total assessment should be reduced to

The Western Union Telegraph Company asks for a reduction on similar grounds, its representatives claiming it has been overcharged in this State. It is claimed the assessment is not made on the proper basis. The Central Union Telephone Company's epresentatives were before the board and asked that this company's assessment be allowed to remain as it is. It was stated that 7,000 new phones have been placed in service in the last year. The New Telephone Company was also represented. JENNIE M. TEMPLETON SUES FOR RUCKLE-STREET OWNERS ..

Temporary Order Issued by Judge Carter Against the Works Board

-Other Court News.

A temporary injunction was granted by Judge Carter yesterday on a complaint filed by Jennie M. Templeton, who represents eighty-five property holders on Ruckle street, between Seventeenth and Twentyfirst streets, to prevent the Board of Works from accepting certain work done on that street and the assessment of the property for the improvement. The hearing was set for July 29. It is alleged in the complaint that the specifications were not followed in completing the work. The street should have been built with a twelve-inch foundation of screened gravel in the center and five inches on the sides, with a thirty-six-inch brick gutter. Instead of that, the complaint says, sand and dirt was plowed up and no gravel used at all and the gutter is but twenty-four inches wide. A steam roller was to have been used, it is contended, and the gravel rolled, but this was not done. The contractor claimed that he was afraid to use the roller for fear it would get stuck

Mattie M. Fergason filed suit in the Superior Court yesterday against the Prudential Life Insurance Company and Henry Seyfried, administrator of the estate of Ora Copenhaver, who recently was executed at Michigan City for the murder of his wife. It is stated in the complaint that Copenhaver was indebted to Mrs. Fergason over $300 for board for himself and two children. It further states that Copenhayer, who is her son-in-law, assigned a says that after Copenhaver's death she was less than the amount first reported, but admitted that he had garnisheed the for the ambulance, and the person at the policy and receipts for all premiums that been paid, but that the company had failed to pay the face of the policy. Story of Mischievous Boys.

Special Officer Elmer Stoddard, of the Vandalia railway, carried into the Juvenile Court yesterday a long story relating to an extremely bad gang of boys that have been giving the company trouble in the neighborhood of Morris street. He related that on one occasion the boys were very nearly responsible for a bad collision. A number of freight cars standing on the side track were uncoupled by them and allowed to go coasting down the grade at a rapid rate. By the merest chance they missed a stockyards car about to cross at the Morris street crossing. Officer Stoddard testified against John Bowman, Harry Bowman and John Heinrick, all boys under twelve years of age. They were charged with stealing corn from a Vandalia car. It was shown that these boys did not really steal the corn, but merely took it from cars already unloaded. The young trio was dismissed and an effort, will be made to land the real

FRESH-AIR MISSION

Many Children Are Being Cared for and Money Is Needed.

The Fresh Air Mission is carrying on a much more extensive work this year than last. There are now ninety mothers and children at Fairview Park, which is the largest number taken care of this summer. Since a number of new cottages have been built the work has been extended and those in charge are very well pleased with the

C. S. Grout, who is secretary of the Fresh Air Mission, says the work has increased so much that the money on hand s not adequate to meet the demand. There has been received up to date $1,600 and this time last year the managers had $2,800 with not nearly so great an expense. This is the first public announcement that has been made of the need of funds and Mr. Grout said he thought there would be little difficulty in getting the remaining $1,000. Donations may be made at 306 North Delaware street, the headquarters of the mission, or at the Fletcher National Bank.

Clerks Circulate Petitions.

An effort is being made by the clerks of the stores giving the Saturday half-holidays during the summer to make the custom universal. These clerks have had 2,000 blank circulars printed and will distribute them through the city. The circulars ask the people of the city to cease their Saturday afternoon shopping. The clerks will begin circulating the pledges this afternoon and will attempt to get them to all the people of the city. They say that the Saturday half-holiday system is now general throughout the East and they are afraid that if it is not made universal here some of those that are now bserving the custom will not do it again Pioneer Brass Works, 418-424 S.
